FOREWORD

If, as the years go by and recollections grow dim, the incidents recorded in this book recall memories which will help to brighten the dullness of the busy day, then the 1932 Broom will have served its purpose.

Delta State

Written by
DR. WILLIAM H. ZEIGEL
Dean of the College

Sons and daughters of the Delta!
See you Cleveland as a Mecca?
Meeting place of school and scholar—
Not far distant now.

Never ceasing, never ending,
Come the years like billows, bearing
On their crested breakers daring
Deeds of gallant men.

Build a school for teachers!
Rampart of God's creatures;
The truth is gained,
The youth is trained
In these our schools for teachers.

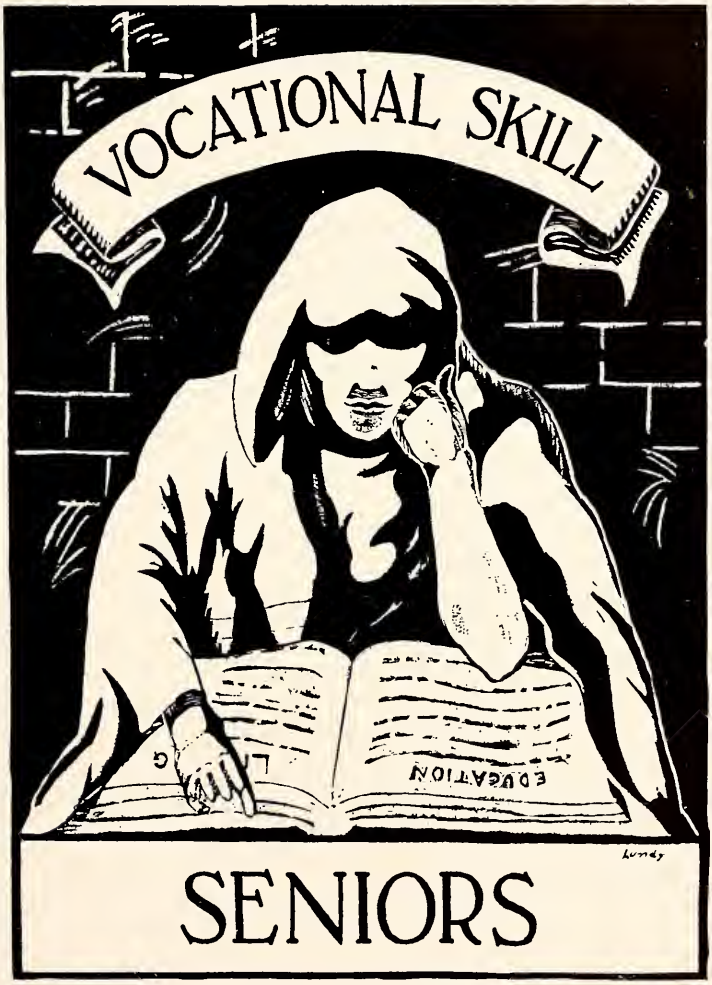

Forward! Now our college calls us
To our state's most useful service.
Countless children rise to bless us!
Country, school, and God.

Mighty deeds and works of glory
Wait for men to tell the story—
Not of wars and battles gory,
But of those who live.

College days will soon be over,
Mercy then our errors cover,
Clinging to the past as lover
Crowning hope with tears.

Pause! A moment ponder!
Shouts are ringing yonder!
The clash of teams
Like surging streams
Will make the years grow fonder.

Men of Cleveland, young and doughty,
Maidens fair with wealth of beauty,
Trained are you in paths of duty,
Country, school, and God!

Football Squad

Captain Ben Stallings, End

MABEN, MISSISSIPPI

Captain Ben is one of the "Maben boys." He was always there when it came to football.

"Speedy" Rush, Half

MOORHEAD, MISSISSIPPI

"Give it to Speedy" was a familiar cry when we had to have a gain. We always got it.

Broughton "Emke" Wade

CLEVELAND, MISSISSIPPI

"Emke," the one who could always cheer the boys along. He was death on passes.

Coach Herman Zimoski

"Coach," your boys will always be for you. A good coach, a good teacher, and a gentleman.

Wade Kellum, Half

SHAW, MISSISSIPPI

Kellum was the half that drew comment from the Memphis sports writers in that hard-fought game with Southwestern.

James Hartrich, Full

Why, everybody knows Hartrich, the boy with the "Punting Toe."

James Flack, Guard

STEPHENSON, MISSISSIPPI

Flack is one of the '32 freshmen who came in and taught some of the older men how.

Football Squad

Ralph Smith

BOONEVILLE, MISSISSIPPI

Ralph made a good showing for his first year.

Earl McDaniels

"THE HILLS"

If Mac keeps on playing football, some of these days we will hear big things of what he expects to do.

Gerald Bishop, Guard

HAZELHURST, MISSISSIPPI

When the game started Bishop was always on that right guard position, and did he guard in that position? Well, you should have seen him!

Curtis Ball, Half

CALHOUN CITY, MISSISSIPPI

That Calhoun County boy can play ball. He has grace, ease, and power that goes like lightning.

Douglas Butler, Tackle

BLAINE, MISSISSIPPI

Butler is playing at tackle and at center and playing is the word for it. He knows his football and plays it.

Cyrus Sneed

PONTOTOC, MISSISSIPPI

Sneed is another of our freshmen who promises to be one of the regulars another year.

Frank Barnett

PACE, MISSISSIPPI

Barnett was always out there for practice, and it is his type that helps to build a good team.

Football Squad

ERNEST FONDREN, Fullback

CLEVELAND, MISSISSIPPI

Fondren was one of our best runners. He is going to give somebody a run for first place another year.

CLAUD KELLY, Center

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

Kelly is back with us this year, and what a center he did make! Can he handle that ball?—and how!

LAMAR BEEVERS, Guard

CLEVELAND, MISSISSIPPI

"Fatty" Beevers always made a good line when he was in it. The opponents had to go around, and had such a long way to go.

PETE CONNELL

GREENWOOD, MISSISSIPPI

Another freshman, and what a player he did make!

COLEMAN BENNETT

MERIGOLD, MISSISSIPPI

Still another freshman, and some center, too.

H. "MINISTER" BISHOP, Guard

Well, as you all know, "Minister" happened to come last, and that was the way he was in a tackle—the last one to get off the ground because he was usually the first one to get the tackle. There are lots of football players, but only one "Minister" Bishop.

Tennis

This was Delta State's first year in intercollegiate tennis. Her net men made a very good showing, and the outlook for another year is unusually bright due to the fact that all of the team, with the exception of Rush, will be back another year.
